“I (have) produced conclusive evidence from the Court of Common Pleas that Maud Greystoke, the known wife of Eudes (or Ives) Welles [son and heir apparent of Sir John Welles, 5th Lord Welles], survived him and had two additional marriages. This past year, I did further research in the records of the Court of Common Pleas. Upon doing so, I turned up yet another marriage for Maud Greystoke, namely to Sir Walter Fauconberge, of Flixborough, Lincolnshire, and Withernwick, Yorkshire, who died in 1415. The evidence for this new marriage is found below.

Maud Greystoke has long been known to have had two sons by her marriage to Eudes (or Ives) Welles, namely Lionel (or Lyon) Welles, K.G. [6th Lord Welles], and William Welles, Knt. [Lord Chancellor of Ireland], both of whom have modern descendants. As it turns out, Maud Greystoke had four hitherto unknown children by her marriage to Sir Walter Fauconberge, namely one son, Roger Fauconberge, and three daughters, Margaret (wife of William Monceaux), Isabel (wife of Edmund Percehay and Gerard Sothill, Esq.), , and Constance (wife of Anthony Nuthill, Knt.).

By way of Sir Walter Fauconberge and Maud Greystoke’s daughter, Isabel Fauconberge, Maud is ancestress of the 17th Century New World immigrant, William Wentworth, of Exeter and Dover, New Hampshire. As such, descendants of William Wentworth can now claim numerous Plantagenet and Magna Carta lines of descent.

For interest’s sake, I’ve copied below my current file account concerning Maud Greystoke and her various marriages, together with additional information on her daughter, Isabel Fauconberge.

In closing, I wish to thank Terry J. Booth who proofread an earlier draft of my research and offered his comments. ————Douglas Richardson, Historian and Genealogist

“1. EUDES (or IVES) WELLES, son and heir apparent by his father’s 1st marriage. He married before 1406 MAUD GREYSTOKE, daughter of Ralph Greystoke, Knt., 3rd Lord Greystoke, of Greystoke, Cumberland, by Katherine, daughter of Roger de Clifford, Knt., 5th Lord Clifford [see GREYSTOKE 12 for her ancestry]. They had two sons, Lionel (or Lyon), K.G. [6th Lord Welles], and William, Knt. [Lord Chancellor of Ireland]. He took part in the rebellion of 1405, for which he was fined 100 marks and pardoned 7 August 1405. He had license to travel abroad 20 Dec. 1407. EUDES WELLES died testate at an unknown date. His widow, Maud, married 2nd) before 6 October 1414 (date of fine) WALTER FAUCONBERGE (or FAUCOMBERGE), Knt., of Flixborough, Lincolnshire, Withernwick, Yorkshire, etc., son and heir of Roger Fauconberge, Knt., of Flixborough, Lincolnshire, Holme on Spalding Moor, Yorkshire, etc., by Margaret, daughter of Robert Darcy [see FAUCONBERGE 10.ii for his ancestry]. They had had one son, Roger, and three daughters, Margaret (wife of William Monceaux), Isabel, and Constance (wife of Anthony Nuthill, Knt.). Sometime in the period, 1405–1408, Joan, widow of John

Fauconberge, Knt., of Whitton, Lincolnshire [see BROMFLETE 14.i], granted him the manors of Pattishall and Rothersthorpe, Northamptonshire, together with an annuity of 59s. owed by Maud, widow of Thomas Wake, Knt., for all her holdings in Cardington, Bedfordshire to hold for the term of his life. In 1414 John Welyngouere and Agnes his wife, Robert Potande and Isabel his wife, and Joan Tranby, granted Walter and Maud his wife twelve messuages, lands, and a third part of one mill and one weir in Flixborough, Lincolnshire. SIR WALTER DE FAUCONBERGE died 1 Sept. 1415. He left a will dated 23 August 1415, proved 11 Sept. 1415; requesting burial in the church of the Virgin Mary in Guisborough, Yorkshire. He widow, Maud, married (3rd) JOHN NORMANVILLE (or NORMANVILE), Esq., of Smaws (in Tadcaster), Yorkshire, Sheriff of Lincolnshire, 1417–18, presumably son and heir of John Normanville, of Smaws (in Tadcaster), Yorkshire. In 1416 John Normanvyle, Esq., of Smawes, granted William Bakester, rector of Adyll, an annual rent of 10s. 6d. from his lands in the vill of Oxton, which lands with property in the vills and territories of Tadcaster and Oxton, Yorkshire were granted to him by the said Bakester. In 1418 he sued Thomas Wyntere, of Harpswell, Lincolnshire, bailiff, and five others in the Court of Common Pleas regarding a reasonable account for the time they were receivers of money for the said John. The same year he sued Richard Holand, of Partney, Lincolnshire, bailiff, and five others in the Court of Common Pleas regarding an account for the time they were receivers of money for the said John. The same year he sued William Mapulbek, of Grantham, Lincolnshire, bailiff, and five others in the Court of Common Pleas regarding an account for the time they were receivers of money for the said John. JOHN NORMANVILLE, Esq., was living in 1418. His widow, Maud, married (4th) before 1422 (date of lawsuit) JOHN HAYTFELD (or HATFELD, HATEFELD), Esq., of Flixborough, Bradley, and Swaby, Lincolnshire, Sheriff of Lincolnshire, 1423–24. In 1422 Richard Hagh and three others, executors of Thomas de Hagh, sued John Haytfeld, Gent., of Flixborough, Lincolnshire, and Maud his wife, widow and executrix of Eudes son and heir of John de Welles, Knt. in the Court of Common Pleas regarding a debt of 10s. In the same year William Bakester, clerk, sued John Haytfeld, Gent., of Flixborough, Lincolnshire, and Maud his wife, widow and executrix of John Normanville, Esq., in the Court of Common Pleas regarding a debt of £4 12s. 6d. In 1423 he was granted the keeping of the county of Lincoln with issues and profits belonging to two farms and to the profits of the county, rendering £201 yearly. In 1427 William Girlyngton, Citizen and draper of York, sued John Haytfeld, Esq., of Flixborough, Lincolnshire, and Maud his wife in the Court of Common Pleas regarding a debt of £12 13s. 8d. In 1434 Robert Raudon sued William Normanvyll, Knt., of Smaws (in Tadcaster), Yorkshire, executor of the will of John Normanvyll, and John Haytfeld, Esq., of Flixborough, Lincolnshire, and Maud his wife, co-executrix of the said William of the said will, in the Court of Common Pleas regarding a debt of £40. In 1435 John Haytfeld the elder, Esq., and Maud his wife and Richard Midelham, chaplain, settled 26 messuages and land in Winterton, Lincolnshire on the said John and Maud for life, with remainder to John, son of the said John, and the heirs of his body. The same year Thomas Mitford and Isabel his wife conveyed the reversion of seven messuages and lands in Winthorpe and Wainfleet, Lincolnshire to John Haytfeld the elder, Esq., and Maud his wife for life, with remainder to John Haytfeld the younger and Margaret his wife and the heirs of their bodies. In Easter term 1437 Roger Faucumberge sued John Haytfeld and Maud his wife in the Court of Common Pleas regarding waste and destruction in lands, houses, woods, etc., in Flixborough, Lincolnshire, which the said Maud held for life, and which John Ellerker and others formerly demised to the said Maud and Walter Fauconberge her late husband and the heirs of Walter (father of the said Roger, whose heir he is). The same term and year Roger Fauconberge sued John Hatefeld and Maud his wife in the Court of Common Pleas regarding the manor of Withernwick, Yorkshire, which he claimed as his right.

“Child of Richard Sothill, Gent., by his alleged wife, Agnes ____:

1) ISABEL SOTHILL, born about 1489 (aged 36 in 1525), daughter and heiress. She married OLIVER WENTWORTH (or WENTWORTHE), Gent., of Goxhill., Lincolnshire, younger son of Thomas Wentworth, Esq., of North Elmsall, Yorkshire, by Jane, daughter of Oliver Mirfield, Esq., of Howley, Yorkshire. They had two sons, William and Francis, Gent, and unnamed daughters. In the period, 1518–29, Oliver Wentworthe and Isabel his wife, daughter and heir of Richard Suthill, sued John Morley and Walter Castelforth in Chancery regarding the detention of deeds relating to the manors of Whythall in Flixborough, Lincolnshire, and Shor, Yorkshire. In the period, 1518–29, Oliver Wentworth, of Goxhill, and Isabell his wife, daughter and heir of Richard Sottell, sued John Morley and Walter Castellfurth in Chancery regarding the detention of deeds relating to the manors of Flixborough, Lincolnshire, and Shorre, Yorkshire, and messuages and land in Widygane, Cleton, and Afle. He and his unnamed daughters were legatees in the 1523 will of his father. In the period, 1544–1551, Oliver Wentworthe, Gent., of Goxhill, and Isabel his wife, daughter and heir of Richard Sothyll, sued Edmund Sheffelde [Sheffield], Lord Sheffield, in Chancery regarding the manor of Whitthall in Flixborough, Lincolnshire, and messuages and land there and in Halton and Conisby, Norfolk. He married (2nd) JANE _____. OLIVER WENTWORTH, Gent., left a will dated 7 Dec. 1558, proved 28 Jan. 1558/9. His wife, Jane, was living 28 June 1559 (date of Oliver’s IPM).

Following the Hawley-Browse article (ancestral to Wentworth and the Marburys) to be completed in TAG 91.4 (forthcoming), first author Terry J. Booth has another article, scheduled to appear in TAG 92.1 and 92.2, early in 2022, that details the Fauconberge ancestry of William Wentworth, including the identity and marriages of Maud Greystoke. Booth discovered this independently of Douglas Richardson several years ago, but independent confirmatory evidence found (and posted to soc.genealogy.medieval) by Richardson will also be discussed in the forthcoming article.
